

THE RAY WEAVER COMMISSIONER'S AWARD

This award is presented annually by the Gulf Stream Council to recognize a Commissioner who best exemplifies the qualities of a good commissioner like that of the late Ray Weaver. A commissioner is a friend of the unit and does whatever he can to help that unit to be successful. Ray was like that because he truly understood the Scouting Program happens within the unit, but that the unit leadership needs support and encouragement that could best be given by a friend of the unit, the commissioner. Ray was a professional scouter and wrote most of the support materials used by commissioners nation wide. When Ray retired from the professional service, he settled in the Gulf Stream Council area and served as Council Commissioner for many years putting his training and philosophy to good use for the benefit of the scouts of the Gulf Stream Council. He motivated, influenced, and trained others in the importance of an effective and trained commissioner. Ray Weaver was known nationally as "Mr. Commissioner".

Nominations for this award are solicited for this year's consideration. If you would like to nominate a Scouter for this award, please complete the bottom part of this sheet and submit it to the Council Service Center no later than the second Friday in November.
